THERE'S SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE!

Current & Future Music Educators and Adjudicators will:

- learn what is expected from adjudicators as they serve you and your students
- understand what adjudicators are looking and listening for from your ensemble
- gain perspective on how to better prepare solos, ensembles and large groups for competition
- ask experienced directors and judges questions over any topics to help you better serve your students

Adjudicators will:

- review adjudication techniques applicable to various festival and contest styles
- discuss and compare concepts of performance standards
- hear and see examples of performances across all levels and abilities and participate in "hands-on" adjudications
- learn to assign division ratings consistently and equitably
